

Historic Galisteo

This residence was remodeled to provide a second home in America for an Austrian contemporary art dealer and a painter. We approached the historic remodel in a manner one would approach repairing an old Japanese tea pot; all repairs are expressed. This allowed the home to retain its historic status, and yet be true to its contemporary life. Plasters and a significant change in the existing fireplace shape fulfilled the client's desire to honor the simple past.