

ZANE'S WORLD

HOWDY, NEIGHBOR

By: Zane Fischer 01/06/2009

Excerpt:

“The NWQ is the city’s last significant opportunity to ensure that additional affordable housing is built on the north side, in close proximity to downtown, rather than in farther and farther recesses of sprawl and effectively ghettoized areas. It’s also the city’s most likely current chance to focus assets and energy on a truly progressive, genuinely green (mostly) and honestly innovative housing effort.”